Volusia, Brevard, Flagler and Surrounding County Residents
Invited to Attend September 19th ONA Conference

Daytona Beach, FL - (June 23, 2014) - Individuals from various parts of Florida are expected to register to attend the upcoming Opal Network Alliance (ONA) Women's Conference and Expo. The event will be held Friday, September 19, 2014, at the Daytona Beach Ocean Center, located at 101 North Atlantic Avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida 32118 (map).

Hailed as "America's Multicultural Conference & Expo for Women," ONA features an array of time sensitive forums with thought leaders from categories that include business, careers, health, finance, achievement, and interpersonal enrichment, as conference categories.

"We have created what is sure to be one of the most culturally sensitive, yet thorough women's empowerment summits in the country," states Vel Johnson, CEO of Vasaj Communications, and spokeswoman for ONA. "Our primary objective is to become a resource that provides information, motivation, and strategy for ONA's attendees through an enhanced platform of networking and substantive connectivity."

The event will uncover shared values and synergy in diverse cultures and communities by focusing on commonalities rather than differences. Event developer, Othal Partners, LLC, believes the occasion should be used to impact commerce, education, and families. Through ONA's platform for inclusiveness of all women, any region can become powerful in improving the quality of life for everyone.

Registered attendees will have the opportunity to learn about entrepreneurship, personal and business finance, better health strategies, diet and fitness, leadership, relationships, networking, time management, political decisions, self esteem, domestic violence, and more. In addition to these symposiums, this one-day conference will also feature a continental breakfast, an empowerment luncheon, panel discussions, and an ice cream social.

Registration for the event will begin at 7:00 a.m. with workshops commencing at 8:00 a.m. Conference activities for the day will end at 6:00 p.m. Registration may be made through the Opal Network Alliance website at www.onatoday.com. Tickets are priced at $109.00 for general admission and $89.00 for college students, with ID. Questions may be emailed to ONA organizers at info@onatoday.com, or call them directly at 407.454.7779.
